Scholarships:

We love this gathering and want as many people come as want to, even if the combined expenses of the gathering and travel make it less than feasible. We don't have a lot of sholarship money, but are willing to use what we have. If you would like to come but don't feel you can afford it, please don't hesitate to ask about sholarships. Also, if you are feeling flush and would like to contribute to the scholarship fund with cash or frequent flyer miles, please let us know.
